Amphideutopus oculatus

Diagnostic Characters:

Base of antenna 2 attached to lower surface of head will behind the eyes

G1 of male larger than G2

G1 complexly chelate

G2 subchelate

Lateral lobes of head quite long and raised from the head dorsally

Depressed part of head between the lobes bearing a small, acute rostrum

Eyes large, dark, globular, situated at the ends of the lobes

Illustration:

Fig. A, B, antennae 2 parts; C, maxillipeds; D, telson; E, F, G, peraeopods 2, 3, 5; H, upper lip; I, J, gnathopods 1, 2, K, M, maxillae 2, R, P, pleopods 1, 2, Q, rostrum; L, inner end of gnathopod 2; S, end of gnathopod 2; V, stomach; X, Y, left; Y, left; Z, vulva; W, telson; G, pleon segment 3.