Species: Eudorella pacifica

Museum Number: 232

Describer: Hart
Date: 1931
Family: Leuconidae

Common Name:

Source: Hart, Some Cumacea of the Vancouver Island Region (cont. to Can. Bio. & Fish., 1931)

Synonym: Eudorella tridentata (see Barnard & Given 1960). Location: Southern California

Distinguishing Characteristics:

- Lower margin of carapace serrate for about half its length.
- Well developed sinus on anterior margin, strong tooth on anterior ventral corner
- Carapace rectangular, anterior margin truncate, usually with two dorsally projecting teeth and one ventrally projecting tooth on each side of carapace
- Species highly variable with respect to basal joint of exopod, numbers and locations of setae and spines on the carapace

Length 4.1 mm - 6.4 mm
Remarks:

Deep Cove, Vancouver Island, B.C. 1929

Southern California,

16-100 fms

33 - 41 - 50 fms

Most abundant Cumacean in Southern California (Barnard & Given, 1960)