Ischyrocerus angvipes

Diagnostic Characters:

- Outer ramus of U3 immersed spine, if present, never hooked; distolateral margin of ramus with 0-7 perpendicular, small blunt denticles
- Coxa 5 much longer than 6
- Coxa 1, ¾ as long as coxa 2
- Accessory flagellum multi-segmented and elongate
- Article 5 of G1 as long as or shorter than article 6
- Article 2 of Pereopod 5-7 subovate or broadly rectangular
- U3 with 2 fully developed rami
- Male G2 with elongate propodus, dacyl very long, not chelate

Illustration:

!Illustration of Ischyrocerus angvipes