Species: Scleroconcha
Tetraconchoid

Describer:
Date:
Family: Philomedidae

Common Name:
Source:

Synonomy:
Location:

Distinguishing Characteristics:

- Carapace deeply and evenly pitted over entire surface
- Caudal furca arrangement 2L-15-1L-2S
- Furcal spines all setose on inner curvature
- Body reticulated, 3 lateral ridges on each valve
- Rostrum spatula-like, antennal sinus distinct

Plumose bristles on inside of rostrum or carapace (AD. Z. Huang)

♀ Appares more slender (Females)

8 mm

♀ 9/7

Other 9/7
Remarks:

Sept 74

[Map of an area with various labeled sections and numbers, but no clear text interpretation can be made from the image provided.]