

Jassa staudei

Diagnostic Characters:

G2 of female and small non-thumbed male, palm usually concave

G1, carpus, without seta at the anterodistal junction of the propodus

G1, basis without a row of short setae along the length of the anterolateral margin

G2, anterolateral margin of the basis with a row of setae along its length

Illustration:

2052

CAN. J. ZOOL. VOL. 68, 1990

FIG. 16. Jassa staudei. Holotype, adult male, major form, 6.0 mm. Broken Islands, north side of Wouwer Island, Barkley Sound, Vancouver Island, British Columbia, 27 June 1976. E. L. Bousfield, collector. NMNS 1976-157, station B7. Lateral view.