

Deflexilodes norvegicus

Diagnostic Characters:

- Portion of rostrum in front of eyes as long or longer than eye
- Rostrum as long as rest of head
- Rostrum curved with dorsal and anterior edges at less than right angles to each other
- Telson rounded or truncate
- G1, article 5, lobe does not appear pinched at the base
- Pigmented eyes present

Illustration:

looks a lot like Pacifoculodes barnardi

Body is pigmented

