

Gammaropsis thompsoni

X Most common @ 8C stations

Diagnostic Characters:

G2, male, palm nearly transverse, bearing both a medial tooth and a defining tooth
G1, male, segment 2 not anterodistally produced into a lobe
G2, male and female, palm bearing a tooth
Coxa 7, male, greatly expanded
Head lobe produced and distally toothed
G1 and G2, male, margins densely setose
G2, female, palm not excavate
Urosome segments 1 and 2, carinations pointed
Eye large and reniform
Uropod 3 rami subequal
Urosome dorsally cusped
Peraeopods 3 and 4, segments 4 and 5 subequal

Illustration:

Figure 4. Gammaropsis thompsoni (Walker) ♂ 10.0 mm, jv ♂ 4.5 mm, ♀ 8.5 mm, Cape Beale, Barkley Sound, Vancouver Is., B.C.